

Gingerbread Man Poop

Wednesday, 12 November 2008

What is better, or cheaper, than a bag of poop (well, not real poop, of course!)? You can make a whole bunch of this craft in one night and it is so easy for the kids to do with you! Materials: Brown M&Ms' or small ginger snap cookies Plastic bag Ribbon Tag/Verse (click link to print out 4 pre-made tags) Instructions: Put a handful of the treat in plastic bag. Tie off with pretty holiday ribbon. Print and attach tag to bag. Give to friends and family as a fun holiday joke.
